

HIGHLIGHTS NOVEMBER & DECEMBER 2025

Dear Gracious Giver, Bless us with open hearts and generous spirits. May we share our blessings selflessly, showing kindness and compassion to those in need. Teach us the joy of giving without expecting, and may our acts of generosity reflect Your boundless love.

Amen.

Children's Day Celebration

11.11.25: On the occasion of Children's Day, a vibrant Baal Mela was organized in the school. The event began with a special assembly, paying tribute to the first prime minister of independent India Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. Children also shared the importance of cleanliness and reminded everyone about their responsibility to keep the surroundings clean.

The Baal Mela was inaugurated by the school Principal, Ms Anupma Singh who talked about the beauty of innocent childhood. She encouraged students to enjoy each moment of their lives. The school ground buzzed with excitement as children enjoyed different games, delicacies and fun-filled swings.

The cheerful atmosphere, joy, and laughter made the day truly memorable. The Baal Mela was a delightful experience for all and it added charm to the Children's Day celebrations.

National Conference on School Libraries (NCSL 2025)

The Library and Documentation Division (LDD) organized the National Conference on School Libraries (NCSL-2025) on 11th & 12th November 2025 at NCERT, New Delhi, on the theme “Ensuring School Libraries for Holistic, Inclusive, and Equitable Learning in the Light of NEP 2020.”

The conference was attended by dignitaries such as Dr. Akash, Mr. Himanshu Gupta (IAS), Prof. Ajay Pratap Singh, Prof. R. K. Bhatt, Dr. Priya Rai, and several experts from across India. Our school Librarian Ms. Mahima got the opportunity to attend the conference.

The dignitaries delivered talks, held discussions and emphasized that school libraries should be dynamic learning hubs rather than mere book storage spaces.

The event highlighted the importance of strengthening school libraries to promote equitable access, foundational literacy, creativity, and lifelong learning. It reaffirmed that empowering libraries is essential to achieving NEP 2020’s vision of holistic, inclusive, and equitable education.

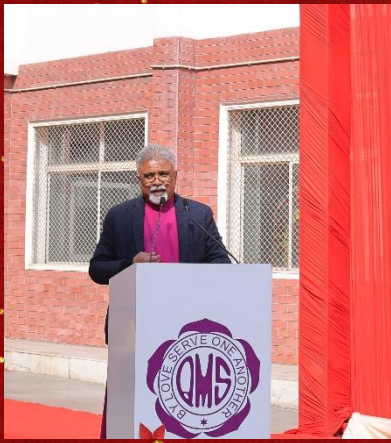

Storytelling Competition

Prajanya Priti Gautam of Class V-E participated in the Storytelling Competition announced by CBSE with great enthusiasm. She presented her story creatively, using beautiful illustrations and self-designed posters, which made her narration engaging and appealing.

Through her story, she conveyed the inspiring message that continuous hard work and dedication always lead to success. The video of her presentation titled ‘मेरी कहानी मेरी जुबानी’ was uploaded on the CBSE portal, and she was awarded a participation certificate for her commendable effort.

'Parousia – The Time is Now'

Our school celebrated Christmas with great reverence, joy, and spiritual fervour on 5th December 2025. The programme commenced with a solemn Invocation, seeking God's blessings. This was followed by the opening carol, 'O Silent Night' rendered beautifully by the school choir. The school Principal, Ms Anupma Singh, welcomed everyone and extended warm Christmas greetings to the august gathering. She emphasized on the true spirit of Christmas—love, sharing, and forgiveness. A meaningful theatrical presentation titled 'Parousia – The Time is Now' was aesthetically staged by the students, conveying a heartfelt message of preparedness, faith, and hope for the Lord's second coming. The Honourable Chairman, The Rt. Rev. Dr. Paul Swarup, Bishop, Diocese of Delhi, The Church of North India, was the chief guest for the occasion. He appreciated the efforts of all the participants and shared a powerful Christmas message centered on love, peace, and faith. The programme concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by the Senior, Primary & Junior School Coordinators Ms Nikita Gupta, Ms Astha Parashar, and Ms Kanika Kumar—who acknowledged the efforts of all who contributed in making the celebration a grand success. The celebration concluded with the Benediction by the Honourable Chairman, invoking God's blessings upon all present. The Christmas celebration proved to be a spiritually uplifting and a memorable experience, filling each heart with peace, joy, and hope.

Christmas Activities

'Sasyashyaamlaam Maatram Vande Mataram...'

The year 2025 marks 150 years of Vande Mataram, a significant composition that continues to inspire generations. To observe this milestone our school has organized a series of year-long activities for the students beginning 7th November 2025. These activities aim in making students understand the message, history and values reflected in Vande Matram. A brief introduction about the 150-years old history of the song was followed by an online quiz conducted during the online classes.

CBSE Expression Series

The 2nd CBSE Expression Series was organized in school on 9th December 2025 for students of Classes III to V under the theme 'From Farm to Future: Strengthening Rural India'. The initiative aimed to provide students with a creative platform to express their thoughts while building awareness about rural life and the invaluable contribution of farmers. The activity aimed to promote creativity, enhance writing skills and spread awareness about the importance of rural communities and farmers. Students expressed themselves on the topics 'My Village, My Pride' or 'Farmers: Our Heroes' and wrote a 150-word paragraph in either English or Hindi. Students participated enthusiastically, shared thoughtful ideas, personal experiences, and appreciation for farmers and village life.

Visit to the British Council Library

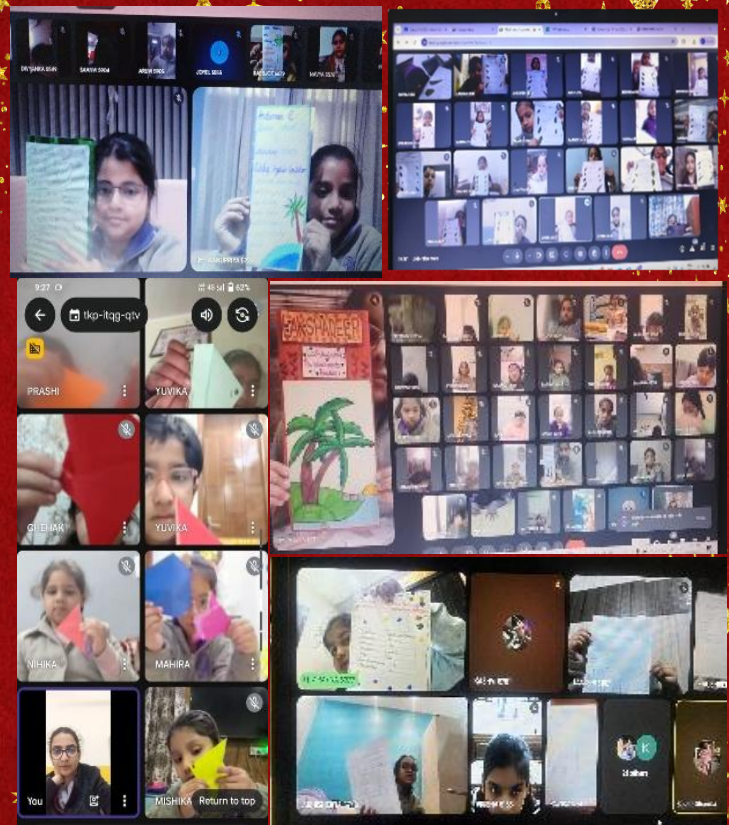

On 12th December 2025, the Reading Club members had an enriching visit to the British Council Library. They were warmly welcomed and taken on a guided tour to explore the wide range of books and digital resources available for young readers. The movie 'Dolittle,' was screened for them which highlighted values of kindness, empathy, and compassion towards animals. The experience was both educational and enjoyable, inspiring students to read more and reflect on humane behavior. It was a memorable outing that combined learning with fun.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, as we step into this New Year, we come before You with grateful hearts.

*Thank You for carrying us through the days gone by,
for Your grace that sustained us,
and for the lessons that shaped us.*

We praise You for the gift of renewal and the promise of new beginnings.

Lord, we place this New Year in Your loving hands.

*Fill our hearts with hope, our minds with wisdom,
and our lives with Your peace.*

*May this year be one of spiritual growth,
renewed purpose, and deeper trust in You.*

*Use us as instruments of Your love,
bringing compassion, joy,
and healing to those around us.*

We thank You, Lord, for Your unfailing presence and endless mercy.

In Jesus' precious name we pray.

Amen.

We wish you a

MERRY

CHRISTMAS

a Happy
